Where Can I Park?

Unregistered vehicles may be towed (at the owner’s expense), if parked in University parking facilities in violation of these rules and regulations. No student parking is permitted in the Commuter lots or parking decks from 2 a.m. - 4 a.m., seven days a week. Additional student parking restrictions are listed on the back of this map. The map is for general guidance only.

Motorcycle spaces

Motorcycle spaces available only after 4 p.m., with permit

Parking Information Kiosk

Pay Station/ Metered Parking (Payment Required)

Hourly visitor parking, visitors must have permit between 2-4 a.m.

No student parking 7:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. (M-F) and 2-4 a.m. (7 days a week).

Parking Office

Blue Loop

via Pollock Road

Campus Shuttle

via College Ave

@psuparking

Penn State University Transportation Services

catabus.com (Loop and Link info)

psu.transloc.com (Campus Shuttle info)

EXPIRES

Lot Color

Expiration Date

Permit Number

Lot Color Code

(first letter of color, except blue, where L is used.)

Commuter Parking

Parking available after 4 p.m., with permit

Parking available after 6 p.m., with permit

All Resident Student Lots and Lot 43 (shown in Blue, Brown, Purple) are reserved 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Motorcycle spaces available only after 4 p.m., with permit

Parking Information Kiosk

Pay Station/Metered Parking (Payment Required)

Hourly visitor parking, visitors must have permit between 2-4 a.m.

No student parking 7:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. (M-F) and 2-4 a.m. (7 days a week).

Parking Office

LOT

EXPIRES

Lot Color

Expiration Date

Permit Number

Lot Color Code

(first letter of color, except blue, where L is used.)

Commuter Parking

Parking available after 4 p.m., with permit

Parking available after 6 p.m., with permit

All Resident Student Lots and Lot 43 (shown in Blue, Brown, Purple) are reserved 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
STUDENT PARKING INFORMATION

A. VEHICLE REGISTRATION

1. General. All students registered at The Pennsylvania State University, full-time, or visiting and assuming class status at University Park campus, (at any time, for any reason), are required to register their vehicles with the Parking Office and, while parked on campus, properly display an authorized permit and proper registration. C.O.P.A. parking permits are only issued to registered residents, who are not considered visitors. Non-Penn State Penn State student permits are not valid at University Park campus during the weeks and on weekends. An University Parking permit must be purchased for this vehicle. Parking False or misleading information on permit application will result in immediate revocation of parking privileges and forfeiture of all fees paid.

2. OFF CAMPUS STORAGE. Parking in the lot after midnight will be towed. Student permits issued for the complaint storage areas are restricted from all parking from 2 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. Monday – Friday. Any vehicle not so registered will be towed. Student permit holders are not permitted to park in the parking decks or Commuter lots between 2 a.m. and 4 a.m., seven days a week.

b. Blue permits are restricted to students with at least 28 approved credits completed living on campus or commuting from a Penn State Housing residence and not subject to ticketing or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

c. Purple 43 permit holders are not permitted to park in the parking decks or Commuter lots between 2 a.m. and 4 a.m., seven days a week.

d. Blue permits are restricted to students with at least 28 approved credits completed living on campus or commuting from a Penn State Housing residence and not subject to ticketing or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

e. Note left on a vehicle stating that the vehicle is mechanically disabled are given consideration by enforcement personnel. No exceptions.

3. ADDRESS AND LICENSE PLATE CHANGES. Student permit holders are responsible for reporting all address and license plate changes immediately. Each lot entrance is signed, listing specific hours of reservation and restrictions. A student parking permit and associated vehicle registration and permit fees are processed at the Parking Office, 1 First Street, University Park, PA 16802-1111. The fee must be paid regardless of whether or not a new permit is issued or a permit is not renewed. This is not a replacement fee. The fee must be paid regardless of whether or not a new permit is issued or a permit is not renewed. This is not a replacement fee.

4. PERMIT DISPLAY. Parking permits MUST always be properly displayed.

a. Motorcycles Permit displays are not required for motorcycles, but the motorcycle MUST be registered as an authorized vehicle with a valid permit.

b. Student permit holders are responsible for knowing exactly how to display the permit. Permit holders must be parked on designated signs. Fines are not incurred due to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

5. MIDNIGHT CLEAR/WINTER PARKING. During the first week of each semester, finals week, and University holiday breaks, student or evening/weekend permit holders are not permitted to park in the parking decks or Commuter lots during 2 a.m. and 4 a.m., seven days a week.

b. Student resident permit holders are not permitted to park in the parking decks or Commuter lots during 2 a.m. and 4 a.m., seven days a week.

c. Blue permits are restricted to students with at least 28 approved credits completed living on campus or commuting from a Penn State Housing residence and not subject to ticketing or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

d. Each permit holder is responsible for reporting all address and license plate changes immediately.

6. PERMIT HANG TAGS. Permits are issued for each semester or by the University Police. Pennsylvania State University is not authorized to issue handicap parking placards. All handicap parking placards must be obtained from a state-issued handicap parking placard. Applications for Pennsylvania ADA placards and any other state-issued placard are processed through the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Use of a placard is subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

7. ADDRESS AND LICENSE PLATE CHANGES. Student permit holders are responsible for reporting all address and license plate changes immediately. Each lot entrance is signed, listing specific hours of reservation and restrictions. A student parking permit and associated vehicle registration and permit fees are processed at the Parking Office, 1 First Street, University Park, PA 16802-1111. The fee must be paid regardless of whether or not a new permit is issued or a permit is not renewed. This is not a replacement fee. The fee must be paid regardless of whether or not a new permit is issued or a permit is not renewed. This is not a replacement fee.

8. PERMIT DISPLAY. Parking permits MUST always be properly displayed.

a. Motorcycles Permit displays are not required for motorcycles, but the motorcycle MUST be registered as an authorized vehicle with a valid permit.

b. Student permit holders are responsible for knowing exactly how to display the permit. Permit holders must be parked on designated signs. Fines are not incurred due to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

9. PERMIT HANG TAGS. Permits are issued for each semester or by the University Police. Pennsylvania State University is not authorized to issue handicap parking placards. All handicap parking placards must be obtained from a state-issued handicap parking placard. Applications for Pennsylvania ADA placards and any other state-issued placard are processed through the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Use of a placard is subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

10. PERMIT HANG TAGS. Permits are issued for each semester or by the University Police. Pennsylvania State University is not authorized to issue handicap parking placards. All handicap parking placards must be obtained from a state-issued handicap parking placard. Applications for Pennsylvania ADA placards and any other state-issued placard are processed through the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Use of a placard is subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

11. PERMIT HANG TAGS. Permits are issued for each semester or by the University Police. Pennsylvania State University is not authorized to issue handicap parking placards. All handicap parking placards must be obtained from a state-issued handicap parking placard. Applications for Pennsylvania ADA placards and any other state-issued placard are processed through the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Use of a placard is subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

12. PERMIT HANG TAGS. Permits are issued for each semester or by the University Police. Pennsylvania State University is not authorized to issue handicap parking placards. All handicap parking placards must be obtained from a state-issued handicap parking placard. Applications for Pennsylvania ADA placards and any other state-issued placard are processed through the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Use of a placard is subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

13. PERMIT HANG TAGS. Permits are issued for each semester or by the University Police. Pennsylvania State University is not authorized to issue handicap parking placards. All handicap parking placards must be obtained from a state-issued handicap parking placard. Applications for Pennsylvania ADA placards and any other state-issued placard are processed through the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Use of a placard is subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

14. PERMIT HANG TAGS. Permits are issued for each semester or by the University Police. Pennsylvania State University is not authorized to issue handicap parking placards. All handicap parking placards must be obtained from a state-issued handicap parking placard. Applications for Pennsylvania ADA placards and any other state-issued placard are processed through the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Use of a placard is subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

15. PERMIT HANG TAGS. Permits are issued for each semester or by the University Police. Pennsylvania State University is not authorized to issue handicap parking placards. All handicap parking placards must be obtained from a state-issued handicap parking placard. Applications for Pennsylvania ADA placards and any other state-issued placard are processed through the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Use of a placard is subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

16. PERMIT HANG TAGS. Permits are issued for each semester or by the University Police. Pennsylvania State University is not authorized to issue handicap parking placards. All handicap parking placards must be obtained from a state-issued handicap parking placard. Applications for Pennsylvania ADA placards and any other state-issued placard are processed through the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Use of a placard is subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

17. PERMIT HANG TAGS. Permits are issued for each semester or by the University Police. Pennsylvania State University is not authorized to issue handicap parking placards. All handicap parking placards must be obtained from a state-issued handicap parking placard. Applications for Pennsylvania ADA placards and any other state-issued placard are processed through the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Use of a placard is subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

18. PERMIT HANG TAGS. Permits are issued for each semester or by the University Police. Pennsylvania State University is not authorized to issue handicap parking placards. All handicap parking placards must be obtained from a state-issued handicap parking placard. Applications for Pennsylvania ADA placards and any other state-issued placard are processed through the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Use of a placard is subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

19. PERMIT HANG TAGS. Permits are issued for each semester or by the University Police. Pennsylvania State University is not authorized to issue handicap parking placards. All handicap parking placards must be obtained from a state-issued handicap parking placard. Applications for Pennsylvania ADA placards and any other state-issued placard are processed through the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Use of a placard is subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.

20. PERMIT HANG TAGS. Permits are issued for each semester or by the University Police. Pennsylvania State University is not authorized to issue handicap parking placards. All handicap parking placards must be obtained from a state-issued handicap parking placard. Applications for Pennsylvania ADA placards and any other state-issued placard are processed through the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation. Use of a placard is subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense. Most end spaces and spaces within the first row of a lot are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner’s expense.