Where Can I Park?

Unregistered vehicles may be towed (at the owner’s expense), if parked in University parking facilities in violation of these rules and regulations. No student parking is permitted in the Commuter lots or parking decks from 2 a.m. – 4 a.m., seven days a week. Additional student parking restrictions are listed on the back of this map. The map is for general guidance only.

Motorcycle spaces
Motorcycle spaces available only after 4 p.m., with permit
Parking Information Kiosk
Pay Station/Metered Parking (Payment Required)
Parking Office

Where Can I Catch a Bus?

- Red Link
- Blue Loop
- Green Link
- White Loop
- Campus Shuttle via College Ave
- Campus Shuttle via Beaver Ave

catabus.com (Loop and Link info)
psu.transloc.com (Campus Shuttle info)
A. VEHICLE REGISTRATION
1. General. All student permit holders are required to register their vehicles with the University Parking Office and display their parking permits in a visible and unobstructed manner at all times. The following spaces are not considered visitor parking: Non-Penn State Penn State student permits are not valid at University Park. Permits are valid during the weeks and on weekends. At University Park, Penn State permits must be purchased for the entire year. Providing false or misleading information on permit application will result in immediate revocation of parking privileges and forfeiture of all fees paid.

REGISTRATION
1. Vehicle registration and payment of permit fees are processed at the Parking Office, 1 the Student Union, the Office of University Police, the Office of Student and Campus Life, or the Office of Housing and Residential Education.

2. Payment may be made by check or money order payable to Penn State. Payment may also be made by cash or personal check at the Parking Office or by credit card at www.parchelpark.com. Payment may be made by mail or in person with a check or money order payable to "Penn State Parking." Permits are not valid until payment is accepted and processed. No tickets can be accepted online.

3. Appeals
- Parking violations may be appealed by using the online appeal link at park.psu.edu or by completing an appeal form available at the Parking Office or the Office of Student and Campus Life.
- Appeal application must be submitted within 20 calendar days of the date of violation in order to be accepted and processed to the Appeals Committee. Please note the date that the ticket is issued as the date of appeal.
- Payment in FULL MUST ACCOMPANY ALL APPEALS if the appeal is denied. If the appeal is granted, the parking ticket will be refunded. In the event of a denied appeal, the ticket will be considered paid.
- The Parking Office submits appeals to the appropriate Appeals Committee for independent review and action. The decision of the Appeals Committee is final and not subject to further appeal.

- AFFAIRS COMMITTEE DECISION
- In the event of a denied appeal, all parking tickets for the ticketed vehicle will be issued for the same vehicle until the ticket is refunded.

- 1. OVERNIGHT. Overnight guests must obtain a permit from the Parking Office to park on campus. Owners of "Overnight Guest" passes issued by the University are not required to visit the Parking Office. The University is committed to equal access to programs, facilities, admission and employment for individuals with disabilities. Students without valid student parking permits are not permitted to park with or without a permit. Additional tickets received will result in immediate revocation of parking privileges.
- 2. RECREATIONAL VEHICLES. Most lots are open to visitors on weekends, though the East, HUB and Nittany parking decks require a special permit or payment of the applicable visitor fee for visitors. Parking Office. Hourly parking is available in the East, HUB and Nittany Parking Decks.
- 3. WEEKENDS. Visitors may use single space (accept U.S. quarters only) or multi-space meters (accept coin, credit card or LionCash+) or obtain a visitor parking permit from the Permits Office. Visitors who use single space are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner's expense. Visitors who use multi-space meters are subject to ticketing and/or towing at the owner's expense. Visitors are not permitted to park in any space that may have any type of obstruction. The University is committed to equal access to programs, facilities, admission and employment for individuals with disabilities. Students without valid student parking permits are not permitted to park with or without a permit. Additional tickets received will result in immediate revocation of parking privileges.
- 4. RECREATIONAL VEHICLES. Most lots are open to visitors on weekends, though the East, HUB and Nittany parking decks require a special permit or payment of the applicable visitor fee for visitors. Parking Office. Hourly parking is available in the East, HUB and Nittany Parking Decks.
- 5. OVERNIGHT. Overnight guests must obtain a permit from the Parking Office to park on campus. Owners of "Overnight Guest" passes issued by the University are not required to visit the Parking Office. The University is committed to equal access to programs, facilities, admission and employment for individuals with disabilities. Students without valid student parking permits are not permitted to park with or without a permit. Additional tickets received will result in immediate revocation of parking privileges.